

Indigenous Arts Activism, Sea Country and Saltwater Dramaturgies in Australia

4:00-5:30pm on 29th September 2023

Talk by the M | A | S | E | R

(Material | Art | Science | Environment | Research) group

<https://www.bathspa.ac.uk/research-and-enterprise/research-centres/art-research-centre/material-art-science-environment-research/>

We will kick off this academic year with a presentation and discussion by and with Helen Gilbert:

Helen Gilbert

Indigenous Arts Activism, Sea Country and Saltwater Dramaturgies in Australia

Online at 4-5.30 pm
29th September 2023
M|A|S|E|R group forum

Dalisa Pigram (Yaruwu/Bardi) in video adaptation of dance-drama Gudurr Gudurr by Marrugaku, Broome 2013

Helen Gilbert works as a researcher at Royal Holloway University of London [RHUL], where she is Professor of Theatre in the Department of Drama, Theatre and

Dance. <https://pure.royalholloway.ac.uk/en/persons/helen-gilbert>

Helen will introduce her research in broad terms, with reference to Indigenous performing arts activism on water/climate related issues and will talk more specifically about what she is calling 'saltwater dramaturgy' in relation to Australian examples and the broader implications thereof.

All the best,

M | A | S | E | R